

CANADA'S FAVOURITE INDIE COOKING SERIES RETURNS FOR A SECOND SEASON AS THE CITY OF VANCOUVER'S BUSIEST CHEF & TV PRODUCER TAKES HIS BRAND TO NEW HEIGHTS!

'The Dome Cooking Show' – Vancouver's only independently-owned, reality-lifestyle series – hits the airwaves for a new season as Chef Duran Bodasing continues to create three new shows from his Antler Studios®!

VANCOUVER BC CANADA / FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE / MARCH, 10, 2026

Two years after a chance meeting turned an eight-minute, home-shot pilot into a broadcast series, Vancouver designer, restaurateur, and chef Duran Bodasing is back with a brand-new season of his indie hit, The Dome Cooking Show (TDCS), which premiered in the Fall of 2025 on CHEK TV / CHEK+ VOD / Youtube. As of Q1 2026, the show is being shopped internationally by Filmhub and location scouting for a third season is underway.

The show's signature mix of fast, flavourful dishes and Bodasing's high-energy hosting landed him on the cover of Iconic Concierge Magazine, which quickly led to a regular food-lifestyle column.

Chef Duran has spent the time between post-production and release expanding his creative portfolio, adding the magazine column, product collaborations, food-focused events, and celebrity catering - most recently to seven-time Grammy Award-winning R&B icon Toni Braxton - to his growing list of accomplishments. Antler Studios has been nominated for both a Canadian Screen Award for 'Best Host in a Lifestyle Series' & a LEO Award for 'Best Host in a Lifestyle Series' & 'Best Episode for Season 2 / Episodes 1 & Episode 5.' It's an exciting time for Antler Studios®!

"This is exactly what I love doing – working with my team at Antler to show people they can make bold, flavour-forward meals themselves." says Duran from his studio home. "Antler Studios® is developing three new shows. We are looking forward to bringing a very unique interview styled show called 'The Cheeseburger Show'. The show will premiere Q1 2027 on CHEK TV & streaming channels. We also have a brand new vertical-format show called 'Make it Snappy' with 3 minute shorts currently airing on Chef Duran's social channels."

With top-shelf sponsors like Ninja/Shark, Broil King, and Canada's largest bank RBC, and Duran's trademark flair and showmanship, there's no limit to where The Dome Cooking Show – and the Chef Duran brand – can go next.
